

ITE 288 – Introduction to Information Technology
FINAL PROJECT – WEB DESIGN EVALUATION CHECKLIST

GROUP MEMBERS	SECTION: 1BSIT –	A	B	C
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.

Legend (Individual Assessment):

A – Ability to answer questions from the panelist (8 points)

B – Topic knowledge (7 points)

C – Attire and Presentation (5 points)

Web Design Criteria (FIVE (5) POINTS EACH BULLET)	RATINGS
1. Navigation	Rating per item: (1=NOT met.. 5=Met totally)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Navigation options are clearly marked and self-explanatory</li> <li>Links to other pages and back to home page are functional</li> <li>All links work</li> <li>Links to other sites are relevant</li> </ul>	Comment:
2. Ease of Use	Rating per item: (1=NOT met.. 5=Met totally)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Users can navigate without difficulty</li> <li>Users can locate needed information easily</li> <li>Help features are available and easy to access</li> <li>Download speed is acceptable</li> </ul>	Comment:
3. CRAP Principles	Rating per item: (1=NOT met.. 5=Met totally)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Contrast –colors support readability and understanding, headings and subheadings help with navigation</li> <li>Repetition – page design is consistent for all pages</li> <li>Alignment – page design helps users read the content</li> <li>Proximity – related items are close to each other, information is easy to find</li> </ul>	Comment:
4. Audience Appeal and Suitability	Rating per item: (1=NOT met.. 5=Met totally)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Text is readable and in an appropriate font for the intended audience</li> <li>Media elements enhance the content</li> <li>Advertising does not interfere with content</li> <li>The site invites the user to explore</li> </ul>	Comment:
HIGHEST POSSIBLE SCORE (80/80)	TOTAL SCORE:

PANELIST: _____

SIGNATURE OVER PRINTED NAME

Date of Presentation: _____